GrandBridge Energy Releases Inaugural Corporate Responsibility Report

Cambridge, ON (May 23, 2025) – GrandBridge Energy is proud to announce the release of its 2024 Corporate Responsibility Report, Our Roadmap to a Sustainable Future. This inaugural publication reflects the company's commitment to embedding environmental, social, and governance (ESG) principles into its operations and outlines a clear path forward under its new five-year Strategic Plan.

The report, available at grandbridgeenergy.com/report, highlights the significant progress made across key ESG areas and sets the foundation for continued growth, transparency, and accountability.

"As a forward-thinking utility, GrandBridge Energy understands that a strong commitment to environmental sustainability, social impact and governance accountability is integral to long-term success and community trust," said Sarah Hughes, President & CEO of GrandBridge Energy. "This report represents a pivotal step in our journey to lead with integrity, innovation, and purpose."

The report features insights from across the organization, highlighting the people behind the progress — GrandBridge Energy's employees, whose are central to the company's achievements and ongoing success.

The Corporate Responsibility Report underscores GrandBridge Energy's pledge to align daily operations with sustainable business practices and community impact. With a strategic focus on environmental stewardship, social well-being, and sound corporate governance, the company is poised to continue building a resilient and sustainable future.

"The release of our 2024 Corporate Responsibility Report is just the beginning of our journey," added Hughes. "We look forward to continued collaboration with our customers and communities to achieve a sustainable energy future."
